Of course the arms on the clock don't stretch to far
Cause, not every time holds second chances
Bloom, regular life can hold it's own
Soon, Up in the stars is where there's room

The road said
Get on the highway
Just point west and the rest will come

Of course the way to the top is often different
Goals, break up the calms from all the storms
Fly, give it a try there's gold they say
Stay, it's all been done and your aware

The road said
Get on the highway
Just point west and the rest will come

2 steps we know can make a difference
From where you been to where you go
Hide no one likes a last in place
Seek what you know will suit your taste

The road said
Get on the highway
Just point west and the rest will come

The road said
Get on the highway
Just point west and the rest will come
