Magdala she a lady far from the ones you know
She a princess stuck in a crowded town made from an old fort

Everyday is laced with a journey from and forth
When the winter hits, she headed west with a bag and a warm heart

In the mean time she waits where the eagles go High above the world, with a average soul but a smile like the cosmos

Magdala she a lady, thru and thru
Magdala take bow this songs for you

(Ooo's and Ah's)

On a road of demons, she calm their wicked tongues Heaven made her right, with eye's of pearls and skin like a cleanix

Wish you knew the new age queen that I know
Magdala Winston I honor you

Magdala she a lady, thru and thru
Magdala take bow this songs for you x2

1... 2...
(Beat Boxing)

Ooo's and Ah's
Magdala she's a lady
Ooo's and Ah's
Far from the ones you know x2

OOO's
The End
