Have you ever met the robot man
Some say he lives in a land beyond here
Not much taller than average man
Yet he could lift your fears with one hand
He always had the time when the time was scares
He never had to fight cause his words would fight for him.

As you begin to hear
Maybe he's one of us
He could be a man of steel
Among a world of flesh

Have you ever seen the Robot Man

Center of the talk he's the talk of man
Blank to the eyes but inside they know he's real Keeper of the faith puts his trust within Only what is right will be seen from a glance of him
Please if you see the robot man
Tell him, his place in this world will be held for good

As you begin to hear
Maybe he's one of us
He could be a man of steel
Among a world of flesh

Have you ever seen the Robot Man x4
