Someone told me write a love songx2

The beats been goin since 82
I've up my game and changed the rules
I'm stepin out for me and who
And ask me nice the who is you

It's been nothing but stares and sighs
And I'm still standin here mesmerized

Girl you had me at the door
And I ain't sayin that cause your fine
I guessin this could be for fun
Or maybe I'm singin this all because

Someone told me write a love songx2

I can't mistake your lovely moves
That talk you talk, your face it steals
My every step they follow you
And that's the facts I'm stickin to

You yourself can capture minds
But let's add me and we'll survive

Jokes aside I'm diggin you
I'm usually scared but you have proved
My heart can talk and make it through
I guess I wrote this song for you

Someone told me write a love songx2

Over an over x3

Someone told me to x2
Write a love song
