Written by Jay Livingston and Ray Evans

Peaked at # 21 in 1958 as flip side of "Teacher, Teacher", which also hit # 21
Sung in the Broadway musical "Oh Captain!" by Tony Randall and Jaquelyn McKeever

I want you with me all the time
Sunrise and sunset and all the time
You are the one love I am living for
Had we just begun love could I love you more

Warm as the May wine, wild as the sea
These are the feelings you waken in me
I've had my moments and a dream or two
But I needed someone all the time
And all the time it was you

Warm as the May wine, wild as the sea
These are the feelings you waken in me
I've had my moments and a dream or two
But I needed someone all the time
And all the time it was you
