Today my head is in a mess
Today I'm nervous out of control
Today I hit a low a low
It's you and you are all I recall

The days you used to drive me insane,
The nights you gave my love a bad name,
Today it feels like I'm at the end of the line
I hate to miss you more every day
I pray your memory fades away
Just get the hell out of my life

Because you
Are always on my mind
There is always you
Drowning me till I die-ie-ie
Cause today I kinda feel like crying
There is always you
Drowning me till I die-ie-ie

Today I woke up under my bed
Today my lips won't whisper a word
Today my heart's a broken toy
You don't want to play with any more

And all the times you said you are mine,
And now you're gone and baby that's fine,
I tell myself that I don't care
And then I think of you there goes my day
I start to cry and break more away
Just shut up and silent the voice in my head

Because you
Are always on my mind
There is always you
Drowning me till I die-ie-ie
Cause today I kinda feel like crying
There is always you
Drowning me till I die-ie-ie
