Suddenly you realize, All that you lived for is Gone Desperately searching for just one reason to carry on Conditions are right for the greatest of Miracles - Now It's been known to Happen - when your world come tumbling down Dare to Believe - then you will see - There is hope where you are Realize, that in my Eyes - Nothing, nothing's too hard Dare to Believe - then you will see - There is hope where you are
If only You'd realize that in my eyes Nothing, Nothing's too hard One tragic moment - - It all slipped right through your hands Shattered your Dreams - So it would seem - so it would seem
You just lost your only Chance - - There you are, there you are - falling apart You're so sure your life is through - but there is so much more More than you ever dreamed is waiting to happen to you.
Dare to believe - Oh OH, then you will see, Oh Oh, there is hope where you ARE If only YOU'd realize that in my Eyes, Nothing's, Nothing's too Hard Dare to believe, then you will see, then you will see - Hope where you ARE In my Eyes, In my Eyes . . .
No Need to sit crying the blues - consider this, there's nothing to lose Open your eyes have faith and see all things are possible to them that believe - Hey Conditions are right for the greatest of Miracles Now - it was bound to happen
When your World has come tumbling down - Yeah. . . .
There is hope where you are - where you are Realize, Realize . . .
