Here I am
And I'm facing another life changing situation
Here I stand
And I know that I must learn from what I've just come through Could it be the trying of my faith was allowed to educate me in patience

It's hard for me to accept the test or trial that comes to make me strong
But I know no matter what I go through I am not alone
He is there and promised that He'd never ever leave me
My constant help He'd always be

I can overcome all my problems
I can overcome all my fears
Because I know the Greater One's inside of me
It's causing me to know that He is always near (He is always near)

Now that I've
Come to realize the power I have is in His love
I can tell
All the world it only comes when given from above
That He's made a way for us to live abundantly
Throughout the trials life can bring

I can overcome all my problems
I can overcome all my fears
Because I know the Greater One's inside of me
Causing me to know
He is always near

I'm more than a conqueror - because He loved me
I'm more than a - I'm more than a conqueror
Since He loved me - (Since He loved me)

Winter, spring, fall and summer
The word of God: I am an overcomer
I've got someone to lean on
I've come to the conclusion

That I can carry on
You never let me down before

Winter, spring, fall and summer
The word of God: I am an overcomer
I've got someone to lean on
