Come and take my hand and lead
Come and pour the oil over me
And humbly I will bow my knee
Oh let Your love fall down
And when I fail You comfort me
Wipe the tears from my face
Then You lead me beside
Still waters of grace
Restore my soul
And lead
Come and steal my pride away
Come and promise me you'll stay
Then goodness and love will follow me
All the days of my life
