Just below my right eye

Settle something sweet

Greet me with your lips

Begin the lie

Love to watch me smile

Live to make me frown

Drowning in the sea

You improvise

CHORUS

Doesn't anybody let you out of your cage

Sanctuary from the stage

Your affection is a dress rehearsal

And your kiss is like an autograph

And I never was your biggest fan

A sudden stinging burn

Turns my head toward

A pair of eyes

Empty and enamored

Crazy and composed

Posing for the ones

They victimized

CHORUS

Yes, and in the future I see a big horizon for you

Knowing you will find somebody who can just adore

you

Yes, and I will always pray for a day when you say

I'm better now, I'm better now, I'm better now

CHORUS (minus stage line)
