Stay through the night, don't leave
I'm not alright to be left alone right now
It's west Texas out the window
Well, I've been looking for a change
At 2 am it's unfamiliar and yet the same
It's all the same

Up from this desert are we gonna fly
Into a big southwestern sky
Well, I've been trying to find the things
I've got the mind to say
If you stay, stay

Stay till the dawn hits the road
I'm moving on but the dust, it settles slow
It's a long way to the ocean
But everyone wants to go
I want to sail out past the shoreline
I want to know we're not alone

Up from this desert are we gonna fly
Into a big southwestern sky
Well, I've been trying to find the things
I've got the mind to say
If you stay, stay

I'll be alright, driving through the night this way
If you stay, stay
