I go to sleep tonight with my head in the clouds
And these dreams alive
But it's all a mystery to me, how we're alive and breathing
When fear is taking hold and we can't move on
And just let go
There's more to this than what I know
I feel it in my soul
There's so much out of our control

Your love is deep, your love is high
When I was lost and darkness stole the light
You pick me up, you take me higher
You set me free, you opened up my eyes
Tonight, tonight I can't wait to see the sunrise
When the light, the light
Has brought me back to life
And I'll be alright
Tonight

We walk and then we fall
We're just looking for something to matter at all
There's every reason to believe
It's all in front of you and me
This never-ending sky
It won't wait too long to pass us by
A hopeful desperation's taking hold
I feel it in my soul
There's so much out of our control

Your love is deep, your love is high
When I was lost and darkness stole the light
You pick me up, you take me higher
You set me free, you opened up my eyes
Tonight, tonight I can't wait to see the sunrise
When the light, the light
Has brought me back to life
And I'm alright, yeah, tonight

Your love is deep, your love is high
When I was lost and darkness stole the light

You pick me up, you take me higher
You set me free, you opened up my eyes
Tonight, tonight I can't wait to see the sunrise
When the light, the light
Is shining on my face
Tonight, tonight I can't wait to see the sunrise
When the light, the light
Has brought me back to life then I'll be alright
Tonight
I go to sleep tonight with my head in the clouds
And these dreams alive
