Josephine, Josephine, you're not the girl for me
Josephine, Josephine, you're not the girl for me
Well I found out, we were wrong and never meant to be
Well I found out, we were wrong and never meant to be
Well, I've got this life to waste my time
It'll take some time to ease my mind
I've got this life and that's for sure
Josephine is walking out that door
And you know that, time can change you
And you know the clock will age you
But you know that I can't blame you
You're not who you used to be

Live an learn
It's Stone I turn
She's rolling right by me
Find me a good girl, one with soul
Your water's too shallow
Find me a good girl, one with soul
Your water's too shallow

Well, someone with money can buy you rings
Stuck in these hard times sweeping change
I've got this life and that's for sure
Josephine is walking out my door

And you know that, time can change you
And you know the clock will age you
And you know that, time can change you
And you know the clock will age you
And you know that, time can change you
And you know the clock will age you
But you know that I can't blame you
You're not who you used to be
