So much more than we got to do
Don't want to wait before my shoes
Walk over me before, before I do

So much talking left to do
You stop talking way too soon
I put my shoes right back, back on too
So what's left to do with you?
So what's left to do with you?

So much fighting left to do
Don't wanna stop before I'm through
Put my dollar [unverified] out back, back on you

You tie me up, you spit me out
I went too far but I can melt
Time will take its toll, it's true
So what's left to do with you?
So what's left to do with you?

So much movin' I got to do
Don't want to wait for my shoes
To walk over me before, before I do

There's so much talking left to do
You stop talkin' way too soon
Put my shoes right back, back on too
So what's left to do with you?
So what's left to do with you?
