Sometimes I'm not thinking
And I forget to call
And I've been known to leave you standing in the rain
Cause I've been such a fool

Babe I know what's on the outside
And now I wanna go with you
I wanna take that famous wide it's all up our eyes
To find out if we'll sink or swim

(Chorus)
I've been loving you
And I've been holding back
But now I realize it's time to give you something more
And that's a fact
I've been playing games
Hiding from the truth
I know I have taken you for granted
When I should be loving you
Like a ruin man
Coming to his senses
I understand
What I've got to do
I just gotta love you

Sometimes my concentration
Don't act out like it should Cause I'd enough to think for me as much as someone else
To you I never thought I could

Repeat Chorus

There's a lesson that's not hard to find
What you give is what you get it's true
And if I keep this up you might leave me behind
That's the one thing I can't let you do

Repeat Chorus

I just gotta hold you

Really gotta love you
I just gotta love you
I just gotta love you
