Rule the world, touch the sun
Put a needle through the moon and watch it bleed
Break the walls, scratch the floors
Take the gold and make it yours
Cos' you're a million miles from the sand that plays
Time's on your and I must say
You can touch the highest star, if you believe
Then you'll go far

But you've gotta believe, gotta believe, gotta believe
Gotta believe, gotta believe, yes
You can do it for yourself

Read the sky, calm the seas
Gotta find your island and plant that seed
Kick the door, open wide, take the glass
And drink the wine
Unanswered questions, leave no secret desire
And for the burning bridges, leave no fire

But you've gotta believe, gotta believe, gotta believe
Gotta believe, gotta believe, yes
You can do it for yourself

Give water to the desert, give salt unto the sea

Lay scent upon a flower, stop the revolution inside of me

But you've gotta believe, gotta believe, gotta believe
Gotta believe, gotta believe, yes
You can do it for yourself

Give water to the desert, give salt unto the sea
Lay scent upon a flower, that's how easy it could be
If I could believe, gotta believe

But you've gotta believe, gotta believe, gotta believe
Gotta believe, gotta believe, yes
You can do it for yourself

Golden fields, singing trees, conducted by

The wind and breeze
You can have all your dreams, but you've got to believe

But you've gotta believe, gotta believe, gotta believe
Gotta believe, gotta believe, yes
You can do it for yourself
