Let me hear the words, let me hear the words,
Tell me you were never underestimated.
Let me hear the words, let me hear the words,
Tell me you were never ever so frustrated.

And I'll try, oh, I'll try,
And I'll try, oh, I'll try,
I'll try to change your mind and see,
That when it's,
Only you and me,
We could,
Turn our whole world inside out.
Cause every,
One wants you to be
What every,
One wants to believe
So, honey,
Take my hand, don't turn around.

Oh, and listen to me now, listen to me now, Honey,
Everybody's gonna say what they say.
And, listen to me now, listen to me now, Honey,
Cause I'm telling you we'll make our own way.

If we try, if we try.
So let's try-y-y
I'll try to change your mind and see,
That when it's,
Only you and me,
We could,
Turn our whole world inside out.
Cause every,
One wants you to be
What every,
One wants to believe
So, honey,
Take my hand, don't turn around.

And don't be scared, my darling,
Cause it's gonna be alright.
Don't be scared, my darling, no

Let's just run away tonight.

Try to change your mind and see,
That when it's,
Only you and me,
We could,
Turn our whole world inside out.
Cause every,
One wants you to be
What every,
One wants to believe
So, honey,
Take my hand, don't turn around.

Oh, honey take my hand, don't turn around.
Oh, take my hand, don't turn around.
Don't turn around.
