Another night, night, night under glimmering lights
And the radio is all I can hear
We're gonna drive, drive, drive to a different town
While you're waving in the rear view mirror
And I gotta keep on moving
Keep on moving down this road
Whoa oh oh

Cause we're crossing over state lines
And we're making up for lost time
It's feeling like a free fall now
Nobody's gonna slow us down

Another call, call, call cross the country tonight
And your voice is like a song in my ears
So keep a light, light, light on don't say goodnight
Cause we'll be gone before the morning is here

And I gotta keep on moving
Keep on moving down this road
Whoa oh oh

Cause we're crossing over state lines
And we're making up for lost time
It's feeling like a free fall now
Nobody's gonna slow us down
Nobody's gonna slow us down

Oh oh it's tearing your heart out
But baby just try to be free
Oh oh it's tearing your heart out
But baby just try to believe
In you and me

[Clap]

Cause we're crossing over state lines
And we're making up for lost time
It's feeling like a free fall now
Nobody's gonna slow us down

Crossing over state lines
And we're making up for lost time
It's feeling like a free fall now
Nobody's gonna slow us down

Honey nothing's gonna stop us now
Nobody's gonna slow us down
