Cab driver won't you take me home
I've had way too much to drink
I don't remember (oh)
I'm gonna put the window down to get some air
So kind sir wake me when we get there
I see strangers kissing
But they don't know who they're with
I'm so hungry I'd eat anything
I'm getting out the cab
Gotta stop myself from falling
Do I say goodnight, or do I say good morning
My home is calling me, so won't you

CHORUS

(Take me home) Take me home
I left the devil at the table
Man, I feel so alone
In the city full of angels
My smile is for show
Like a designer label
(But as I lay down my head) But as I lay down my head
My loneliness spins out of control
(oh-oh...)
(I think I'm going down)
(I think I'm going down)

Man, how the hell did I get here
The room is spinning
But my lonely heart is still
I'm at the point where I need to be alone
Rather than in my bed with some girl ... I don't know
(Yeah)
It takes a night like this
When memories come calling
Like the (Grenadiers) and tea on a rainy morning
I can see the sun it means it's time to go to bed
So I say goodnight to the voices in my head
They're singing my home is calling me so won't you

CHORUS

(Take me home) Take me home (oh no)
I left the devil at the table
Man, I feel so alone
In the city full of angels (I'm so lonely)
My smile is for show
It's a designer label
(As I lay down my head) as I lay down my head
My loneliness spins out of control
(It's spinning out of control)

My home is calling me, Take(take me home) Take me home
I left the devil at the table
Man I feel so alone (Man I'm so lonely)
In this city full of angels
My smile is for show
It's a designer label (as I lay down my head)
Loneliness spins out of control (oh-oh-oh...)
It's spinning out of control
It's spinning (oh-oh...)
