A young girl wakes up in the middle of the night
And makes her way to the kitchen
Carrying a brand new life inside
That woke her up a kicking

She decided the day she walked
Away from that clinic
Her baby might not have a daddy
But at least he'll be living, that's love

When you sacrifice for someone else
And you put them before yourself
And you don't think about what you're giving up
That's love

An old man sits by his wife's bed
But she don't even know him
To her he's just that nice man
That comes by every morning

He knows she can't remember him
But that don't keep him from going
He'll be there 'til her final breath
His vows never broken, that's love

When you sacrifice for someone else
And you put them before yourself
And you don't think about what you're giving up
That's love

A lonely son hanging from a cross
We know he died for all of us
That's love

When you sacrifice for someone else
And you put them before yourself
And you don't think about what you're giving up
When you sacrifice for someone else
And you put them before yourself
And you don't think about what you're giving up

That's love

Oh yeah, that's love
