Your perfect body laying underneath the sunset
Ocean winds stirring up the fire we just lit
Heat of passion rising up into an all night blaze
Yeah, yeah

I'm overtaken by sensation when you're close to me
It's heaven telling me this is where I'm suppose to be
I could live on loving you the rest of my days
Yeah, yeah

There were so many nights I wasted on bad love
There were some empty years the bottle couldn't fill up
At times I thought I had it all and I had nothing to lose
Oh baby, then there was you

Nobody's ever been this far inside of my heart
I walked away before they ever got to where you are
But that's the man I was not the man I am today
So I gotta stay

There was so many nights I wasted on bad love
There were some empty years the bottle couldn't fill up
At times I thought I had it all and I had nothing to lose
Oh, baby
Then there was you

Being wild and free was what my life was all about
Love was something I kept falling in and falling out
Forever was a fairy tale I never gave a thought too
Oh, then there was you

There was so many nights I wasted on bad love
There were some empty years the bottle couldn't fill up
At times I thought I had it all and I had nothing to lose
Oh, baby then there was you
Then there was you
