With fear dripping down your face,
Take one step back, breath in,
Don't let this burn down again.

Heart beating, people stare, I want to Pretend it's all a dream,
Just break out and start again.

Hands shaking and people cry,
Get up get up get up you can't take it

I was something that you could have aimed for,
I see it in you eyes, see it in your eyes,
Pretend to hate me, pretend to brake me,
With stupid little lies, stupid little lies.

I was something that you could have aimed for,
I see it in your eyes, see it in your eyes,
Pretend to hate me, pretend to brake me,
With stupid little lies, stupid little lies.

You tried but failed to say,
Lets drink the night away again,
This boy I can't heart wont bleed
My body's bruised and broke
The writings on the wall

Hands shaking and people cry,
Get up, get up, get up you can't take it

I was something that you could have aimed for,
I see it in your eyes, see it in your eyes,
Pretend to hate me, pretend to break me
With stupid little lies, stupid little lies

I was something that you could have aimed for,
I see it in your eyes, see it in your eyes,
Pretend to hate me, pretend to break me
With stupid little lies, stupid little lies

Hands shaking and people cry
Hands shaking and people cry
Hands shaking and people cry
Hands shaking and people cry

Hands shaking and people cry,
Get up, get up, get up
Don't let this lie
I'm not over yet

I was something that you could have aimed for,
I see it in your eyes, see it in your eyes,
Pretend to hate me, pretend to break me
With stupid little lies, stupid little lies

I was something that you could have aimed for,
I see it in your eyes, see it in your eyes,
Pretend to hate me, pretend to break me
With stupid little lies, stupid little lies

I was something that you could have aimed for,
I see it in your eyes, see it in your eyes,
Pretend to hate me, pretend to break me
With stupid little lies, stupid little lies

I was something that you could have aimed for,
I see it in your eyes, see it in your eyes,
Pretend to hate me, pretend to break me
With stupid little lies, stupid little lies
