My heart is broken bad and the circus is in town
I'm out for a walk
Trying to shake these feelings down
When the sky is getting darker over the land
Things are looking better to me
Ever since I've been set free everything ain't so heavy

Well this night is feelin' good
And it's swingin' my mood around
Everyone's out havin' fun all around this town
I can see the drunks staggerin' by One points to the stars and says to me
"man, ever since I've been set free Everything ain't so heavy"

Well my heart is broken bad and the circus is in town
I'm out for a walk
Trying to shake these feelings down
Watchin' the weather take a turn
Feels like it's changin' for me
'Cause ever since I've been set free everything ain't so heavy
Ever since I've been set free everything ain't so heavy Oh, ever since I've been set free everything ain't so heavy
