Written by David West and Cyril Orander
There could never be a portrait of my love
For nobody could paint a dream
You will never see a portrait of my love
For miracles are never seen.
Anyone who sees her, soon forgets the Mona Lisa
It would take I know, a Michaelangelo
And he would need the glow of dawn that paints the sky above
To try and paint a portrait of my love
It would take I know, a Michaelangelo
And he would need the glow of dawn that paints the
sky above,
To try and paint a portrait of my love
