Let's all pack up and move this year
We'll slip the liars and disappear
We'll leave memories for auctioneers
And those just standing still

They'll miss the taste of wanted you
Call out your name, like I still do
But they haven't said a word that's true
And they only hold you down

In this heartbreak world of just imagine
With it's tired talk of better days

In this heartbreak world, where nothing matters
Come on, let's make this dream that's barely half
awake come true

Let's move out of los angeles
And just drive until this summer gives
And forget the lives we used to live
Cause we're gone

In this heartbreak world of just imagine
With it's tired talk of better days
In this heartbreak world, where nothing matters
Come on, let's make this dream that's barely half
awake come true
