Is this my hopeful conversation?
Are you the forgetful smile?
Is there a source of inspiration
To make this easy for awhile?

You say you found your destination
A place to mend your broken smile
Are you still waiting for salvation
To make this easy for awhile?
To get easy for awhile

How many times a day do you feel that heavy weight?
How many times a night do you close your eyes?
How many cigarettes does it take you just to get
Easy for awhile

(Take your time)
How many times a day do you feel that heavy weight?
(It's a long forgotten road)
How many times a night do you close your eyes?
(Take your time)
How many cigarettes does it take you just to get
(It's a long forgotten road)
Easy for awhile
(Take your time)
How many times a day do you feel that heavy weight?
(Take your time)
How many times a night do you close your eyes?
(Take your time)
How many cigarettes does it take you just to get
Easy for awhile

Take your time
I know you need it
Take your time
I know you need it
Take your time
I know you need it
Take your time
I know you need it
