Lately I can't tell my friends from my enemies when it used to seem so clear and I tried rebellion once look where its gotten me banging apologies against your deaf ears

And she said
Sing me a sweet song tonight
Sing me a new song tonight

We used to lie side by side
I could cover myself in you
We used to lie but im
I am no longer so wided eyed and full

Lately I can't tell where all this is taking me I'm spilling over and i'm spilling spiteful words Oh and there was a time once when I understood my cruelty but now i'm not so sure i'm not so sure and she said

Sing me a sweet song tonight
Sing me a new song tonight

We used to lie side by side
I could cover myself in you
we used to lie but im
I am no longer so wided eyed and full
I am no longer so wided eyed and full

We used to lye side by side
I could cover myself in you
we used to lie but im
I am no longer so wided eyed and full
I am no longer so wided eyed and full
I am no longer so wided eyed and full
