corn stalks aren't like skyscrapers but behind you're invisible and all you ever want to fear don't worry about it - it's right here i wonder if i ate some lead
i wonder if i ate some lead i've been trying for so long to let it pass my by so goodbye, goodbye
it feels so good to say goodbye i'm looking for where the action is so I know where not to go it cost's too much for all your fears i think there's too many people here

i wonder if i ate some lead
i've been trying for so long to let it pass me by
so goodbye, goodbye

i touched your shoulder then i went the other way you turned around annoyed but i was gone away

so goodbye, goodbye
