the clearing is to the brightness as the nearing is to far, too far we both stand up swallowed by these fast trees running beside us we couldn't leave the ground we'll clear the rocks up from the road i'll tell you what you want to know we're holing back of the payload watch the wind growing as the sky stays still and we both look down out onto these tall trees

running beside us
where we'll lie we'll lie we'll clear the rocks up form the road

i'll tell you what you want to know

we bottomed out on the soft shoulder remember the lines that you told her but also there's lot of other ways that aren't in that whole realm - i mean there's so many ways but i don't knowÂ... yeah i think i'm capable but i think i'm a lazy asshole -
