will we both be happy to stand alone i can't see forever, where will I go *i'll stop thinking - i will be ordinary your laughter kills me you can't hurt me that won't matter at all we've stayed together despite our rows and we're holding back so we won't explode

it's in the stadiums and in the biggest rooms we want too belong
i am mistaken it's in the biggest rooms it all goes wrong

so we know more now than we'll ever know

it's in the stadiums and in the bigger rooms we want to belong
wrong
