So help me
I love your lips
the way you smile at me
after we kiss
and touch of your hand
it calms my soul
like a soothing harmony
that unfolds
to the perfect melody
you and me
it was just like love...
it was just like love...
and I'm so fixated
on what I can see
there's something about you thats a mystery
and I look in your eyes...
it tells me
that what I'm feeling
is a mutual thing
it was just like love...
and its hard to imagine that our lives got mixed in the start cast up over the sky at night...
so many miles above
you're not here...
but its like you're beside me
over there,
but you remind me
times we shared so happily and I just wanna keep dreamin'...
dreamin' my life away
away....
