I don't wanna listen to all the things you meant to do
You left me behind in your selfish ways
If you don't think I will get away
I don't wanna hear another I'm sorry for yesterday

And oh, it's so complicated dealing with you and your situations
No, no you you used to be so easy going not knowing just what to think of me
But now I'm biting my nails and your spitting fire
Trying to make me look like a liar
You must be trippin all over the truth
The truth you couldn't see
Cause you take and take and retake each scene Trying not to look so mean
No cutting of this tape will make you come out clean
And your dirty games are so outdated
And look at us and this love's faded
No time to try again

Cause I don't wanna listen to all the things you meant
to do
You left me behind in your selfish ways
If you don't think I will get away
I don't wanna hear another I'm sorry for yesterday

And it started out seeming so simple
But now I'm stuck here in the middle
Of an attitude you choose to use
That makes me wanna leave
And you'll roll your eyes and your eyes at me
Acting so ugly
What makes you think that you can get by
By treating me that way Cause you got no grounds for what you're saying and you're getting me so frustrated
No more of your lies

Cause I don't wanna listen to all the things you meant
to do
You left me behind in your selfish ways

If you don't think I will get away
I don't wanna hear another I'm sorry for
No I don't wanna hear another I'm sorry for yesterday
Oh no yesterday

And you used to say that it was a mistake
And you were sorry for treating me that way
And I forgave but not today
Not today

Cause I don't wanna listen to all the things you meant
to do
You left me behind in your selfish ways
If you don't think I will get away
I don't wanna hear another I'm sorry for
No I don't wanna hear another I'm sorry for
No I don't wanna hear another I'm sorry for
No I don't wanna hear another I'm sorry for yesterday
