Here it goes
don't walk away
please listen to what i have to say

you and i maybe baby we're meant to be but we'll see

so let's go
just walk with me
ya got to talk to me
hear me out
what if we decided to be more than friends

what would happen
and why are you laughin'
i ain't playin'

and what if we fell in love
and what if we fell in love
next question
next question

so apparantly you don't feel the same way for me you see as a brother there is no other way
but if you give me a chance and just one dance you'll see
there's something you can find to love about me
there's something you can find to love about me

so take the chance
give me your hand

and what if we fell in love
and what if we fell in love
it would be so unexpected
you and me

you and me(x4)

it's 2 o'clock
hang up the phone and play the talk we had in your head and what i say and what you said is on your mind before you go to bed so you're walkin' and pacin'
your heart is racin'
you know that if you give me your hand and a chance we could grow into something so beautiful and something incredible

it would be so unexpected
you and me (so unexpected) (x4)
