Ain't nothing on this stretch of 75
But tail lights and white lines
These old wipers can hardly keep up
With this Georgia sky, it's just now opened up
I can feel you closing in on me

Damn this rain, damn this road
No, this ain't the way it's supposed to go
Damn these tears and damn this pain
I was making good time leaving you behind
Damn this train

I could put a few more miles between us
If I could see anything in front of me
I speed up then I slow down
When I sit still I wanna turn around
Wish I could put the peddle on the floor

Damn this rain, damn this road
No, this ain't the way it's supposed to go
Damn these tears and damn this pain
I was making good time leaving you behind

Oh, I wish this sky would clear
So I could disappear into the night

Damn this rain, damn this road
No, this ain't the way it's supposed to go
Damn these tears and damn this pain
I was making good time leaving you behind
Damn this rain
