I still think about you all the time
Do I ever even cross your mind?
I wonder where you are tonight?

If you were here I'd be kissing you
If I were there I'd be holding you
Either way I'd be loving you

But that don't ever
So I'm just stuck

Somewhere between sane and crazy
Somewhere between moving out and moving on
This life that I'm dying to get back to
Somewhere between me and you

Tell me I can have another chance
Tell me we can dance another dance
Let's not leave it all to circumstance

We were good for a little while
We shared some laughs, we shared smiles
God I'd love to make you smile

I'm beggin' please
Baby don't leave me

Somewhere between sane and crazy
Somewhere between moving out and moving on
This life that I'm dying to get back to
Somewhere between me and you

I'm beggin' please
Baby don't leave me

Somewhere between sane and crazy
Somewhere between moving out and moving on
This life that I'm dying to get back to
Somewhere between me and you
Somewhere between me and you
