I'm tired of walking around empty handed
Trying to play it cool
So many just take it for granted and
Makes me feel like a fool
I hurt, I hurt, I hurt, I hurt

It looks like your doing fine
I wish the best for you
But I will always speak my mind
We both been torn apart
How can it get this far
Lets leave the past behind

Because I'm just trying to move forward
To the sunshine inside
The way that we know and
It's time, it's time

What do we still pretend
No, it will never be alright
Were busting out of our seams
We spent so much time
Still I don't feel like
You will ever know me
I thought it was over
Oh it's just begun
It's never over until the damage is done

I'm just trying to move forward
Until the sunshine inside
The way that we know and
It's time, it's time

I'm just trying to move forward
Until the sunshine inside
The way that we know and
It's time, it's time, it's time, it's time

I'm tired of walking around empty handed
Trying to play it cool
So many just take it for granted
Makes me feel like a fool
