So the stage is set, the stars and moon above
I've come so far to get here, baby, look at us
I'm as nervous now as I was back then

Staring back at me in that white summer dress
The smell of jasmine takes me back to our first kiss
And I don't know where to start
But I'm leading with my heart

Yes, I've told you that I love you
And everything I've shown
And it's time to speak the truth
And finally let you know

Though I've always known the words to say
Every other time
I just wish the words came easier tonight

I never said I love you to any girl before
I'd say those words for something that meant more
So I promise when I do
I would give my heart to you

'Cause I've told you that I love you
And everything I've shown
And it's time to speak the truth
And finally let you know

Though I've always known the words to say
Every other time
I just wish the words came easier

Tonight's the night I'm jumping in this fire we started
And it's how the story ends
And I don't normally end up asking for your help
I'm asking for your help

I just told you that I love you
Now everything has changed
Were used to try to stop you
Just got pushed out of the way

And I always knew the words to say
It wasn't the right time
But it couldn't have gone easier tonight
But it couldn't have gone easier tonight
But it couldn't have gone easier tonight
