Another November
That makes 58
But I still can remember the first
When I said forever
I meant every word
Even now, for better or worse

What happened to the years between
When we started out and where we stand?
Love, you gotta know that when Iâ€™m weak
Iâ€™m holding on for you

We raised our children
On pennies and Jesus
And prayed that would be enough
And we watched our Daughters and son turn to
Mothers and father,
Just like us

What happened to the years between
When we started out and where we stand?
Love, you gotta know that when Iâ€™m weak
Iâ€™m holding on for you

All that weâ€™ve got is each other
So what will I do when youâ€™re gone?
Know that as long as Iâ€™m living
Iâ€™ll be holding on

What happened to the years between
When we started out and where we stand?
Love, you gotta know that when Iâ€™m weak
Iâ€™m holding on for you
