Everybody's diggin for gold
Looking for a shine in somebody's eyes
I thought I saw a shimmer in yours
So I pulled you close and held on tight

Sometimes you want something so bad
You tell yourself lies
And hope they come true
If love is a thing you can have
I never knew how to give it to you

I know there's someone out there for me
Somebody's gonna love you right
But right now it's just you and me
Tryin to say goodbye

Nobody said it was easy
To find yourself a love that's true
But I learned that the hard way

Trying to be that man for you

I know there's someone out there for me
Somebody's gonna love you right
But right now it's just you and me
Tryin to say goodbye

So let go
Time knows something we don't
Time knows something we don't

There's someone out there for me
Somebody's gonna love you right
But right now it's just you and me
Tryin to say goodbye

Goodbye
Goodbye
Goodbye
Somebody's gonna love you right
