Think I'm going crazy and I know the reason why.
Haunted by these memories keep playing in my mind,
Caught up in the love left there in your eyes.
Was there something else you meant to say when you
said goodbye?
I hear these voices, right here in my mind.
Got a lot of scenes rushing through my head,
Surrounded by all the things I wish I would've said.
Middle of the night driving down the avenue.
And there's no going back to what it is you thought you knew.
I hear these voices, right here in my mind,
You're all that I find.
I hear these voices.
I hear these voices, well I hear these voices.
I hear these voices,
I hear these voices.
Caught up in the love left there in your eyes,
Was there something else you meant to say when you
said goodbye?
