shadows, timeless days laughing in the sunlight Losing our ways Grass underneath us the Sky above We're in the middle Surrounded by love

Let's kick off our shoes
And wade through the night
The air's too warm
the Moons just right
We'll Sing to the stars
And dance by the light
As we kick off our shoes
And wade through the, night

When I look around
I just can't deny Everything you, oh Everything I
tracing your outline Against a painted sky
Connecting the dots Between you and I

So let's kick off our shoes
And wade through the night
The air's too warm
the Moons just right
We'll sing to the stars
And dance by the light
As we kick off our shoes

We'll hike up our jeans
And get our feet wet maybe we will dance until the dawn

So let's kick off our shoes
And wade through the night
The air's too warm

the Moons just right
We'll sing to the stars
And dance by the light
let's kick off our shoes,
lets kick off our shoes
