Heads up I need some relief from the same old groove
It's getting to me
I hope that I can find something better on the other side
Traffic jam the 405 I hate my job a workin'
It's a 9 to 5 when Friday comes all I do is get some sleep
How 'bout some sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine from you
Back at home it's the same old thing
Flights delayed run around moneys down the drain My bankcards empty and I could really use to win the lottery
Right now I'm headed down this road again
It's a breakdown
It's under my skin
It's cold and it's raining on a Sunday night in NYC
How 'bout some sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine from you
It's a sad sad situation
Cause I'm feeling so small
I've been looking for inspiration
On your Facebook wall
How 'bout some sunshine
I need a little bit of your sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine again
I need a little bit of sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine from you
I need a little bit of sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine from you
So sunshine, I need a little bit of your sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine
I need a little bit of sunshine from you
