I've taken all the locks from the door
And I've picked up all your clothes from the floor
I'm feeling all fingers and thumbs
And I'm gonna need a beat from the drums...
I was gonna make a difference today
I was gonna go and jump on a plane
But who you gonna run to?
Who you gonna run to?
I was gonna call you up on the phone
But the thought of watching tv alone
Yeah who you gonna run to?
'cause I just wanna let you know

Can't we pick up where we started?
Can't we be adults about it?
What you saying? What you take me for?
I kinda get the feeling we've been here before I know
Let's do something about it
cuase I just wanna let you know

Have you got enough for the cab?
'cause I gave you everything that I have
Yeah who you gonna run to?
Who you gonna run to?
Amazing what a difference a day makes

Don't you say we're gonna be mates
Yeah who you gonna run to?
'cause I'm the one who loves you

Can't we pick up where we started?
Can't we be adults about it?
What you saying? What you take me for?
I kinda get the feeling we've been here before I know
Let's do something about it
cuase I just wanna let you know

I've taken all the locks from the door
And I've picked up all your clothes from the floor
I've taken all the locks from the door
And I've picked up all your clothes from the floor

Can't we pick up where we started?
Can't we be adults about it?
What you saying? What you take me for?
I kinda get the feeling we've been here before I know
Let's do something about it
cuase I just wanna let you know
