Your sexuality petrifies me to the point of imbalance
It's what I need
The pain I've come to love
It's pushed me into greatness
Feel the anxiety I almost never believed was real
Here it is in all the fabulous glory
I've missed you
Drive me to the wondrous lands of insanity
I love the imbalance
Fuck the logical
It's time to feel
Feel for the first time
The pointless logic is so tired
Who needs to expend that power
Let us use emotion now to propel
Goodbye logic, we'll keep you around to explain what
Just happened
No longer will you come first
Now it's our pleasure
Thank you death, thank you
You couldn't have been any clearer
No more framework
Imbalance
