Lying on the floor i wonder...were you just too afraid to show?

I guess we'll never know

To this distant ever-after...you didn't want to go

Were we blinded by a reason?

Watching days refuse to shine...to darkness from divine

Such a pity for this lover...you left behind

I never wanted anybody else

I never needed you, i needed help

After the feeling's gone...so long, because it's over

Not a healthy situation...push me over, hold me down

To see if i would drown

Was i waiting for an answer i didn't want to know?

I never wanted anybody else

I never needed you, i needed help

After the feeling's gone...so long, because it's over

And like the lyrics to a song i sang to you before

You know it fades away

I never wanted anybody else

I never needed you, i needed help

After the feeling's gone...so long, because it's over
