Hold me through this darkest night...as the voices scream
Speak into these eager eyes, words of peace and healing
Shower me forever with you
We don't know we are...cut deep and bleeding We'll crash like falling stars, to deepest dark...
And rolling over mind...waves to weaken
For years they told me it was me...inundate with fear
Is it broken?...does it bleed?
Staring through the window...will it swing away from me?
We don't know who we are...cut deep and bleeding We'll sink within our hearts...to deepest dark...
And rolling over mind...will you reach me?
Dance, you tell me, into paradise...but holding on is all i feel i do
You are everything to me
We don't know who we are...but there is peace
We'll shine among the stars...there'll be no dark Consumed within your fire...
We'll blaze with no restraints...in love...alive
