I had a thought of you
In solitude without rescue
Your thoughts are in the pouring rain
And you feel the way
You did before I met you

Now I see the pain
Forcing you to blame
The only man that loved you
Well, no one more
Got close to me before
I'm amazed I let you

To & fro is how
My thoughts would go
While I was looking
For my release

You should know
I had to let you go
Now and forever more
I'm out of reach

Now I see it all right
Before me your little story
My role was on the page
I refused to play in your tragedy

I feel no remorse
While you deal with yours
How you feeling lately?

Well, no one more
Got close to me before
Lady you betrayed me

To & fro is how
My thoughts would go
While I was looking
For my release

You should know

I had to let you go
Now and forever more
I'm out of reach

Hence in the past tense
The sentiments
The arguments
Taking offense

The only consequence
I'm left to lament the love
That came and went
I'm still a true gent

Never bitter
And never twisted
Only optimistic
About the main statistic

Number one is standing vertical
'Cause I never take things personal
Believe me, my woman
My woman is gone
And so me just move on

Da Linguist, this producer
This performer moulded
By the pain and the trauma

I'm on a mission to listen
To intuition more than
I've ever done before
Never keep it hidden

I won't waste away
I'll wake up from day
To day and I'll face this
You're on a need to know basis

To & fro is how
My thoughts would go
While I was looking for
My release

You should know
I had to let you go
Now and forever more
I'm out of reach
Out of reach
