lying on the floor i wonder...were you just too afraid to show?
i guess we'll never know to this distant ever-after...you didn't want to go were we blinded by a reason? watching days refuse to shine...to darkness from divine such a pity for this lover...you left behind i never wanted anybody else i never needed you, i needed help after the feeling's gone...so long, because it's over not a healthy situation...push me over, hold me down to see if i would drown was i waiting for an answer i didn't want to know?

and like the lyrics to a song i sang to you before you know it fades away
i never needed you, i needed help
after the feeling's gone...so long, because it's over
