She's smart and beautiful
That's what rhiannon is all about
She's so young and innocent
But behind those blue eyes and blonde hair Rhiannon's a liar and a dealer of hearts
which means my heart is broken with sorrow

She's a young girl
Who needs to stop the lying and deciet
Her heart dealing is the criteria which makes me, don't want to know her

One day she will learn to....
Become a person who listens to..... her heart, and not her friends

She's a young girl
Who needs to stop the lying and deciet
Her heart dealing is the criteria
which makes me, don't want to know her

She's smart and beautiful
That's what rhiannon is all about
She's so young and innocent
But behind those blue eyes and blonde hair
Rhiannon's a liar and a dealer of hearts
which means my heart is broken with sorrow
