Annabelle said to me the other day
this life is just a dream you get out of bed
put on a happy face cause crying never solves anything you keep to yourself
aint it time that we did something?
oh aint it time that we got clever?
instead of standing in the shadows why don't we try and stand together?

Oh Annabelle

well I like it here cause nothing seems impossible and I need to know that's possible maybe not before but I'm not so sure anymore

that nothings what it seems
you get out of bed
put on a happy face cause crying never changed anything we keep to ourselves and think aint it time that we did something?
instead of living in the shadows why don't we try and live forever?

Oh Annabelle
Oh Annabelle
Oh Annabelle
